1. Mission

The 2013 annual account has been compiled by the treasurer of the foundation based on the available information. The board of the foundation is responsible for the accuracy and completeness of that information and the annual accounts which are based on it.

2. General

The foundation Plenty Food International directs its activities towards stimulating a fair food distribution and sovereignty, by plant based development cooperation. The emphasis is put on stimulating and supporting organic farming and permaculture, through information about and organisation of campaigns, establishing and supporting projects which advance food safety in the world, as well as guiding and supporting the worldwide activities of the organizations in the countries participating.

The organisation is currently supervised by the directors, Mr. P.J. van der Eijnden, Mr. J.J.M. Koedam, Mrs. C.J. Burgemeester and Mr. D.W. Steensma.
